

Experience every room of the home where Dylan spent his formative years

The Welsh poet and writer Dylan Thomas has inspired presidents, pop stars and generations of all ages around the world with his iconic works and tales of his all too short life.

At 5 Cwmdonkin Drive, his birthplace and home of 23 years, you can take a step back in time and experience the surroundings of Wales' world literary icon.

With the help of a friendly and knowledgeable guide you will learn all about the Thomas family and the mischievous Swansea schoolboy who went on to set the literary world alight by the time he was 21 as the bombastic adolescent, provincial bohemian poet, the self proclaimed 'Rimbaud of Cwmdonkin Drive.'

Along the way you'll learn of some of Dylan's best known works that were created whilst growing up at No.5 and examine some of the myths that surround his life. Every room is packed with period style furnishings, photos and memorabilia. This wonderful house excites and entertains poets and pleasure seekers of all ages.

The Boy Poet's Bedroom

It is hard to believe that this untidy bedroom full of books, discarded papers, sweets and cigarettes at the back of a grand Swansea semi-detached bore witness to the creation of some of the 20th century's best loved poems and stories.

Best Bedroom

Dylan made his first appearance in this world from the comfortable surroundings of the spacious bay windowed front bedroom on October 27th 1914.

Father's Study

See the study where as a young boy Dylan learned Shakespeare, did his homework and as a young man, hosted meetings with his legendary creative circle of friends the 'Kardomah boys.'

Parlour

Step into the Thomas family parlour, complete with china dogs! It's the room in Dylan's famous Christmas story where 'Uncles sat in front of the fire, loosened all buttons, put their large moist hands over their watch chains, groaned a little and slept.'
